The interest earnings from the General Mangapai Fund have to be utilised for the benefit of Mangapai Institutions generally and also for other purposes not inconsistent with the objects of the original endowments (page 297 Mangapai Manual). Details about the institution in question have not been furnished so as to facilitate finding out whether there is anything Mangapai therein. It is also for consideration whether this proposal may not be taken up for consideration at the next budget time (April 1936).

SRI [illegible] ASHRAMA, MYSORE.

1. The Ashrama was founded in June 1925, and accommodated in rented buildings until shifted to the out-house built on the present site, in February 1931.

Weekly classes on Religion are held at the Ashrama. Birthdays of Sri Ramakrishna and Swami Vivekananda, as well as of Sri Krishna, Christ, Buddha, Mahomed, Sankara and Ramanuja, and Gita Jayanti are celebrated.

The main line of public activity of the Ashrama has been educational. The Swamis are taking classes on religious and moral subjects --- amounting in all to about thirty classes per week,--- in:--

1. Sri Chamrajendra Ursu Boarding Home
2. Govt. Central Institute for Defectives
3. Govt. Central Kodkarnataka Institute
4. D. Banumiah's High School (Forms V & VI, 3 sections each)
5. Sarada Vilas High School (Forms I to VI, 3 sections each)
6. Kunchitigara Hostel
7. Vivekananda Hostel
8. Vokkaligara Hostel
9. Night School, Tadavarahalli
10. Elakkanachari's Choultry, Doddapet.

4. Recently the Ashrama has embarked upon other important activities:--

1. Weekly religious classes for the public
2. Lantern Lectures
3. Cinema Shows on Health and Hygiene
4. Co-operative Work.

5. Since 1934 the Ashrama has taken up Welfare Work at Tadavarahalli Village, Mysore. The Sri Ramakrishna Seva Samiti has been formed at the Village (Rules appended), with the [illegible] of the Ashrama as the President. Under its auspices the [illegible] work is being done:--

1.	Night School for Adults:	(Staffed by Teachers from High Schools and Colleges)
2.	Welfare Work among Women:	(Conducted by ladies from Vontikoppal, & by the staff & Students of the Maharani's Women's College)
3.	Co-operative Credit Society:	(Secretary being the Teacher of a High School,
4.	Weekly Classes on Religion:	(By the Ashrama Swami)
5.	Lantern Lectures on Personal Hygiene & Village Sanitation, & Educational Topics)	With the help of Public Health Department, & Teachers of High Schools and Colleges.
6.	Educational Dramas:	(The University Union, Mysore

6. Since 1932 the Ashrama has maintained a Students' Home, with 17 students and a resident Swami as Superintendent. The Home is run on the principles and lines of work of the famous Adras Students' Home

7. The Ashrama has published four books in English, and seven in Kannada. Of these 'The Life of Swami Vivekananda' was prescribed as a Text-book for B. B. L. L. Examination.

8. A Study Circle is being run for the benefit of the Swamis of the Order under the direction of the Pandits and Professors of the Sanskrit College and the University.

9. The Ashrama Library (consisting of about 1,500 books) is being largely used by students and people of the locality.

10. In February 1936 all centres of the Ramakrishna Mission in different parts of the world will be celebrating the Centenary of the Advent of Sri Ramakrishna. The Ashrama Committee, Mysore, have undertaken to celebrate the Centenary in Mysore by building a Shrine and a Hall, and also Living Quarters for the Swamis of the Study Circle. These will focus all the different activities of the Ashrama and create a centre of work worthy of the Capital of the premier Hindu State in India. With this view the Committee appeal to the generous public for funds.
